NEW! NEW! NEW! WEBSITE

Our website no longer says "Coming Soon" – its now here! Please visit www.leatherwise.co.uk and find out all about us and how we can help you. We have tried to make the site simple and unfussy, but informative and as easy to use as possible. We would welcome any feedback on the site – just send us an e-mail.

We are indebted to Spindlemedia for all their hard work in making it happen – thanks Paul and Bob!

Here are the 2006 dates for our regular courses held here in Northampton. If you are really quick you can register for our 2 day intensive course on 6 and 7 June or our one day Simply Leather course on 15th June – but hurry!

Don't forget, if your company has several people to train, we are more than happy to come to you. This is more cost effective because it saves on your travel costs and means that people are not out of the office for so long. We can also tailor the course to your own particular needs more easily, using examples from within your own company to make it really relevant to you. Just ask for details.

WELL FANCY THAT!
Did you know that according to the British Standard Glossary of Leather terms, BS2780, if the thickness of the surface coating (the finish) on leather is more than 0.15mm then it should not be called Leather. It should be referred to as Coated Leather.

WE'RE ALL GOING ON A SUMMER HOLIDAY!

Amanda will be on holiday from 24th July until 4th August and Christine will be away from 14th August until 28th August. But the office will still be manned (or womanned!).

We hope that you all enjoy your summer break too!
